Dear Jan:

The FY06 System Annual Area and Per Capita Application from your system has been received at the Illinois State Library. We appreciate your submitting the application in a timely manner. Staff and management will now begin the process of reviewing the applications.

I appreciate the efforts of you, your staff, and board, which help make it possible for your member libraries to participate in the best library network in the nation.

We look forward to hosting your presentation about the application during July as outlined in System Director's Memo #05-019. Thank you for your cooperation and please contact the Library Development Group here at the Illinois State Library should you have any questions regarding the review of the Annual Application.

Sincerely,

Anne Craig, Director
Illinois State Library
