Dear Jan:

The Illinois State Library has received your system's annual report for FY 2006. The timely submission of this important document is very much appreciated. Staff and management will begin the process of reviewing the annual reports. We look forward to reviewing your report on the year's activities and achievements. Should any questions arise during the review process, we will contact you.

Your systems ongoing efforts toward our mutual goal of improving the level of library service available to Illinois residents help make our network exemplary.

Thank you for your cooperation and please contact H. Neil Kelley should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Anne Craig, Director
Illinois State Library
